Shall we be grateful
Shall we be true
These were the questions
That I gave to you

I feel empowered
With you by my side
But still I feel questions
Burning down inside

I want you
Everybody run till the break of dawn
Everybody run till the early morn'
Everybody wanna move and get it on
I want you
Everybody go for an easy start
Everybody wanna go and fall apart
I want you
Will you help me now

Now faster and stronger
We move through the night
We don't look back now
We move into the light

We should be gratefull
We should be true
This is the moment
That we break on through

I want you
Everybody run till the break of dawn
Everybody run till the early morn'
Everybody wanna move and get it on
I want you
Everybody go for an easy start
Everybody wanna go and fall apart
I want you
Will you help me now
