When I sitting on my floor behind enemy close the door.

I'm not a manowar, but inside me still is a war.

I'm looking on my face and don't see my eyes,

My life is race and full of fucking lies.

Fear! I have weighty reason, keep so far away,

Life is a fucking prison!

I have been sleeping a many years it seems,

Fallen angels at my feet, I'm too lost!

Some face it haunt's my once dreams,

I'lay dying, I'm ghost!

Fear! I have weighty reason...

Follow like a many mans before,

Follow death and I'm looking for...

Fear! I have weighty reason...
