DAVE MACLEAN

There was a man, a lonely man who lost his love through his indifference a heart that cared that went unshared until it died within his silence

CHORUS:

And solitaire's the only game in town and every road that takes him takes him down while life goes on around him everywhere he's playing solitaire And keeping to himself he plays the game without her love, it always ends the same and by himself it's easy to pretend he'll never love again A little hope goes up in smoke just how it goes, goes without saying

There was a man, a lonely man who would command the hand he's playing
