Watching the night set in, tomorrow's a brand new day again

Full of twists and turns you'll never know, and great surprises

And nothing is black and white, with so many colors in this light

Take a brush and paint what's in your dreams, a perfect picture

I'm looking at my reflection, for the answer to the question

Make a wish tonight, and see the twinkle in the rain There's magic if you close your eyes, so all you have to do is believe the impossible
And wish upon my magic mirror

Believe in miracles, so dreamers always dream
forever, forever

Possibilities in your hand, Adventures waiting far off land

Full of twists and turns you'll never know second chances

So catch a falling star, and keep it close hold it in you heart

And it will shine a light in the dark, and make things clearer

I'm looking at my reflection, for the answer to the question

Make a wish tonight, and see the twinkle in the rain
there's magic if you close your eyes

So all you have to do is believe the impossible, and Wish upon my magic mirror

Believe in miracles, so dreamers always dream
forever, forever

Take a chance cuz you can and you will see all the possibilities

If you try you will find all the treasure hidden underneath your feet

Make a wish tonight, and see the twinkle in the rain There's magic if you close your eyes, so all you have to do is believe the impossible

forever, forever
