Stay up all night and sleep all day
We were smart kids with too much to say
And so, so sure that they were missing out
They're the ones who are missing out

We were elemental
Talked down to bear essentials
Who knew we'd get so far?

'Cause our days were numbered by nights
On too many rooftops
They said, we'd burn so bright
We burn this city and go

Play it again
(Our games of love and lust)
There's no such thing
(No there's never too much)

And we were so, so sure
Oh we never had a doubt
Now were counting days to getting out

And we were elemental
Took down to bear essentials
Who knew we'd get so far?

'Cause our days were numbered by nights
On too many rooftops
They said we're wasting our lives
But oh at least we know
That if we die, we lived with passion
They said, we'd burn so bright
We burn this city and go

Pack our bags and let's get away
They're catching on to us
Pack our bags and let's get away
They're catching on to us

Pack our bags and let's get away
They're catching on to us

Pack our bags and let's get away
They're catching on to us

'Cause our days were numbered by nights
On too many rooftops
They said we're wasting our lives
But oh at least we know
That if we die, we lived with passion
They said we'd burn so bright
We burn this city and go

We burn this city and go
Oh we burn this city and go
Yeah we burn this city and go

Our days were numbered by nights
On too many rooftops
They said we're wasting our lives
But oh at least we know
That if we die, we lived with passion
They said we'd burn so bright
Oh oh oh
