It still remains
And I can't pretend it's gone
Count on me, to remember who you are
And it still remains
What if you were wrong?
I shouldn't let, I shouldn't let you get too far

What do I, I have to lose?
What do I, I have to do?

Is there any other way
To stop thinking 'bout
Any other days?
We had it figured out
I don't want to lose you
After all we've been through
Is there nothing I can say
To turn you around?
Maybe that's the way
To stop thinking 'bout all those yesterdays
That still remain?

It's killing me
Wondering where you are
You don't call
But your voice won't go away
It still remains
I'm broken but I'm bent
On finding you, and hoping that you'll stay

What do I, I have to lose?
What do I, I have to do?

Is there any other way
To stop thinking 'bout
Any other days?
We had it figured out
I don't want to lose you
After all we've been through
Is there nothing I can say
To turn you around?
Maybe that's the way

To stop thinking 'bout all those yesterdays
That still remain

Okay it doesn't matter
Cause I'm still yours
Give it time to find a pattern
We will find a cure in this design

Is there any other way
To stop thinking 'bout
Any other day?
We had it figured out
I don't want to lose you now...

Is there any other way
To stop thinking 'bout
Any another day?
We had it figured out
I don't want to lose you
After all we've been through
Is there nothing I can say
To turn you around?
Maybe that's the way
To stop thinking 'bout all those yesterdays
That still remain?
That still remain
