And baby don't follow their lead
'Cause you'll never know
Just how the story ends
Or how the story goes
And you are so confused
And baby it's just like you
To say anything else

Whenever you get this way
Just getting up for the let down
Mmm, here they come
And, yes, they're here to stay
Just getting up for the let down

Oh, I'm here to say
That you're the star you wanna be
And just open up and look inside
And you will see, yeah

Someday you'll sing it out loud
One day this will make you proud
Whoa, "I know"
Whoa

And baby don't follow their lead
'Cause you never know
Just how the story ends
Or how the story goes
And you are so confused
And baby it's just like you
To say anything else

It's time for you to understand
Stop getting up for the let down
Oh, who you want is not up to them
Stop getting up for the let down

And I'm here to say
That you're the star you wanna be
And just open up and look inside
And you will see, yeah

Someday you'll sing it out loud
One day this will make you proud
Whoa, "I know"
Whoa

Someday you'll sing it out loud
One day this will make you proud
Whoa, "I know"
"I know" is never good enough

So say what you want
(You know I'm wasting all my time)
Gotta mean it when you say what you want
(You're only safe when you're alone)
And everybody's on your mind
Saying anything to get you by

And so to get what you want
(You know I'm wasting all my time)
You gotta mean it and when you say what you want
(You're only safe when you're alone)
You are wasting everybody's time
You are saying anything that gets you by
It's not, not, not gonna get you [Incomprehensible] gonna get you by

Some day you'll sing it out loud
One day this will make you proud
Whoa, "I know"
"I know", is never good enough

Someday you'll sing it out loud
One day this will make you proud
Whoa, "I know"
Whoa
Whoa, "I know"
"I know", is never good enough
