The water fell from the sky.
Rained all day and all night.
The river flooded our whole town,
So I swam to your house.

So we could float around.

And I said before we go down,
I have to tell you that I love you.
Before we go down,
I hope you've known that I care.
Cause I kept all of these words,
Bottled up so tight.
But tonight's the night I'll tell you,
That you're the love of my life.

And our plane came tumbling from the sky.
We fell so fast we were so up high.
Didn't even make a sound.
But I held your hand,

Till we hit the ground.

And I said before we go down,
I have to tell you that I love you.
Before we go down,
I hope you've known that I care.
Cause I kept all of these words,
Bottled up so tight.
But tonight's the night I'll tell you,
That you're the love- Woah.

Before we go down,
I have to tell you that I love you yeah.
Before we go down,
I hope you've known that I care.
Cause I kept all of these words,
Bottled up so tight.
But tonight's the night I'll tell you,
That you're the love-

Before we go down

(Oh baby, you're my girl) (X3)

Tonight's the night I'll tell you that you're the love of my life.
