When you walked away from me and said your last goodbye i never thought that six months on you'd still be in my life

Chorus:

i have tried to forget get you out of my head but the memories wont fade i can run i can ide from this feeling inside but the pain wont go away because everytime i hear your name the world stops for a moment baby with a single word i can see your face again

because everytime i hear your name
and i'm taking back to what we had everytime i hear yout name

Vs 2:

Now i'm sure you found a girl to fill my empty space (empty space) but i'm stuck with the love that we shared the time just cant erase

Chorus x2:

ang panget mo!!!
putang ina mo
