"Give Me Misery"

He was born to tell this story
Give the life some fame and glory
He was baptised by the fire in the scene
Hand picked, well educated
Fending off the overrated
Call it destiny, but some may call it
Living out the teenage dream

Give me misery or give me death
Jump on board and I'll take you there
Put your faith in me, your heart and soul
Cause together we stand, uniting us all

Sold his soul to gain this title
He's their savior and their idol
Can't escape this fate even if he tried
Gave his life to gain their freedom
Just look close and you can see it
Standing face to face, it's no surprise
You see the devil in his eyes

In this world nothing's free
Take his hand and you'll believe me
