We live it up, we tear it down Another night, another town Only one thing that stays the same We keep it fast and keep it loud I'm ready, are you ready?

Out on the town, top of the list From droppin hits you can't resist Ya know this life is tough But someone's gotta do it I'm ready, are you ready?

Watch out! We're comin through and we're crazy Yeah, we know how to live the good life baby Won't drop, the party never stops So you better get ready cause we're gonna set it off

We're breakin hearts and takin names It's just a game we like to play Too young to fall in love But I'm still gonna do my thing I'm ready, are you ready?

So decadent and heaven sent This is a night you won't forget Fulfilling fantasies And then we're on the road again I'm ready, are you ready?
