Do you believe in fate?
That everything just falls into place
I never felt that way
Till you came into my life again

A second chance, we can start from the beginning
This time gonna write a fairy-tale ending

Never thought I'd see your smile again
Waited on this day a while
Oh please tell me, am I getting through?
What do I need to do?
I don't want to live my life without you

I prayed for this day
You swear to me this time you've changed
Now's the time to prove it babe
Just name the time and place
So I could tell you face to face

I miss your kiss, still taste it on my lips
You've got the kind of lovin that I can't seem to resist

I know love passed us by
But I still think about you
Know it's wrong, but feels so right
I just want you back in my life

We've made mistakes
Can't turn back the hands of time
But one thing that I know
I won't quit until you're mine
