Our plan is set to take over the world
One taste is all it takes
You'll wish you never paid us any mind
You'll call it your biggest mistake

We're in your head and were not going anywhere
Your pulse pounds and pounds but the beat won't stop
The fever shakes you and breaks you til there's nothing left
And the damage has just begun

They don't make a pill for you to treat this disease
There's nothing to make it alright
There's only sure thing that you can bet on Once your hooked your hooked for life

You want us out of your head
We'll still be there when your dead
Repetition keepin' time with your heart rate
The beat will drive you crazy make you wanna get irate

Just let it set you free
Maybe one day you'll see
This was meant to lift your spirit
Give up the urge to fight
Come on get down with it
