Caught a glance from the devil in the blue dress
My thoughts are sins and girl I must confess I've got a one track mind, you're in my sight, I've got the time

Took her hand and we made it to the middle of the crowd
We caught some looks and the music was pounding so loud
It's on, here we go! I think you know... let's give em a show!

I wanna feel your heartbeat racing face to face It's so amazing... the way you move your hips, you know there's no mistaking Girl, this ain't your first time

The lights come up, damn why does this night have to end
She comes to me and says "I think I just lost my friend" I see her wink from afar, you ready to roll? I bet you are!

Get to her house and I walk her up to the door Invites me in, but I tell her that I'm not sure She says "no one's around", she grabs my hand and throws me down

You act like you're oh so innocent
I know that's not the case I'll just smile and keep it to myself
I'll play along with your game this time
