The smaller they come the cuter they are,
And like a fly on the wall the horizon goes far,
But the hand came down like a bolt from the blue,
And it put an end to the cute little you

I wash my hands of it, and dry my eyes
I wash my hands of it, but they're still paralyzed
There's no disguise

Make no bones about the way they say that

The harshest fall starts the largest bang
Starts the largest bang
Starts everything

I wash my hands of it, and dry my eyes
I wash my hands of it, spare no goodbyes
I wash my hands of it, but they're still paralyzed
There's no disguise

I wash my hands of it, and dry my eyes
Starts the largest bang, Oh
