Sometimes I forget I'm so asleep
Sometimes I just trip between my dreams
If I wake up then please close the door
I've lost my dignity and so much more

You are the one I know as love
And I'm so unlovely
You are the one I know as love
And I'm not deserving
You are the one I know as life and I'm not done living

You are the one, the only one
That has been worth giving
To myself

There is a place we go to show off our skin
There is a face I know I have to kiss
Should there be hopes to start to sputter fast
I am the one who gets to hold you last
