Theres a secret on the telephone tonight
She calls me baby when shes lonely
And it drive me crazy but i just can't turn her loose
I've grown accustomed to these years of self abuse

If you ask me to stay
I wont ever go
We can talk all night
Theres some things you should know
This could be for all time
You can still change your mind
If you ask me to stay
I wont ever go

Smells like whiskey is she drunk again
I'd be surprised if she remembers where shes been
And all this passion, is it love or lust?
We talk in circles but forevers undiscussed

If you ask me to stay
I wont ever go
We can talk all night
Theres some things you should know
This could be for all time
You can still change your mind
If you ask me to stay
I wont ever go

But you don't know
If you ask me to stay
I wont ever go
We can talk all night
Theres some things you should know
This could be for all time
You can still change your mind
If you ask me to stay
I wont ever go
