Never felt so sick in so long
You hung up the phone and
It was sure becoming deep
And I stayed awake all night I couldn't sleep
My head is burning from the lies I keep on learning
But you know that I'll be fine
Until the next time

Chorus:

That the phone will ring
Next time you hear me sing and
Next time our eyes will meet
You sweep me off my feet
Next time well I won't be alone
You said you'd come back home
Until the next time

Well I'm the one who heard your lies
I saw it in your eyes and
I hope it makes you feel nice
I'm the one you sacrificed and
Lookin' back I hope you think of me
Gonna break my heart and set you free
Oh but you know that I'll be fine
Until the next time

Chorus

Gonna take a stand and draw the line
Find a bottle and drink you off my mind
Find somebody new who Don't look a thing like you and
Spend all night and half a day
Lovin' my blues away
Oh but you know that I'll be fine
Cause there won't be a next time
Oh no, no baby
Until the next time

Last chorus:

That the phone will ring
And I'll have a new song I will sing
It'll be about me gettin mine
And how you were a waste of time
Next time I wont be alone
So don't bother to come back home
Cause there wont be a next time
Oh no, no baby
There wont be a next time
