Close your eyes
For a little while
And dream of that guy
That catches your eye
Fall asleep
Sleep for eternity
Close your eyes
And forget all the lies

Once you're in your dreams
Nothing will be as it seems
Put a smile on your face
And go to your happy place

Just sleep
And rest your eyes
Fall asleep
Escape into your dreams

Take a nap
And try to go back
To the happier times
Times when you felt alive
You know those times haven't gone away
You'll find them, there's a way
You've just got to smile
Even if it's just for a while
And if you try
There will be no reason to cry

Once you're in your dreams
Nothing will be as it seems
Put a smile on your face
And go to your happy place

Just sleep
And rest your eyes
Fall asleep
Escape into your dreams
