I remember times, broke and down,
My heart poured out on the floor.
I made a fool out of me and not only once,
Not twice, million times and more.
You made me cry so many nights,
I became a prisoner of your lies,
You made me lose my trust and my mind.
But now that's far away, it's a brand new day
And my hope is back to stay and I say...

No I don't look back oh no anymore.
I'm done with you-oh yeah!
It's all in the past and I don't care anymore-oh yeah!

Today you mean nothing more to me,
You're dead in your heart and in my mind.
Can't believe that I was so goddamn blind,
For such a long time.
On some days I'm angry and I'm said,
Cause I know our friendship never come back.
You killed a lot of years on only one day,
But your decision has been made.

No I don't look back oh no anymore.
I'm done with you-oh yeah!
It's all in the past and I don't care anymore-oh yeah!
Believe it's better than before, better than before.
Since you walked out this door, better than before!
