A hand on your head
Lets you know someone's in here with you
Once you woke me only to say
Wasn't today a good day say?

Let the lost word be the last word
Even if it's unheard
Let love be the last verb

Let the lost word be the last word
Even if it's unheard
Let love be the last verb

Our home's not broken
Just put together in a strange way
When you enter we may be quiet
But you're welcome and appreciated

Let the lost word be the last word
Maybe stupid but you heard
Let love be the last verb

Let the lost word be the last word
Even if it's unheard
Let love be the last verb
