I want to be the one
To say that I found you safe
And held you in my arms
I want anyone else in the world
To tell me
That they did too
And took you home

Across the field and to your door
And said, hey baby it's cool,
There's no reason to be scared anymore.
Took you home
And held you in, held you in, held you in.

Just stay home
Don't come outside to play
Circumstance beyond control
I feel so helpless
Mind is racing and breaking
Me in to a million pieces

Because I can't

Take you home
Across the river and to your door
Take you home and
Cut through the darkness
You don't have to cry anymore
Take you home
And hold you in, hold you in, hold you in.

Take you home
Across the sea and to your door
Take you home
But I'm so scared
That home isn't here anymore
Take you home
And hold you in
Through the nightshade and under the stars
And hold you in...
