Yes where all the buildings work and buildings stand around
And where the framework sits still bolted slightly holding to the ground
And when I'm in and out of work
Oh baby I'm in and out of town
In and out of jobs
So much my feet don't touch the ground.

3 pixels of color between you and the sun in the longest distance
A rider approach and he sat and we spoke of the night clubs and homes
And of shock and surprise that they let you through the gate.

Can't beat the city cause the city never gets caught sleeping
Beat the city cause the city never stays Can't beat the city cause the city never gets caught
sleeping
Let the water cool your water bitch you break Take the burning tongue and eardrums down to the lake

I want to be a light you wear around your wrist.
