A Quicksilver tiger through shopping carts.
A moment of panic from when I came out.
This is a fraction a piece of the truth
Justified action for reason of proof

Come out if you want to. step into the light
Come out with your backtalk. cuz talk is all
Sucking those nickels and dime
Eating those nickels and dimes
I waited all day, like I was a rise
For these simple words to come out in full
I said, for these operations to cast city street
Come out if you want to cuz kids you are... Litteral

Somewhere little trainers, they're forming in lines
For people to see water, they're making the time
What our teeth is for, and heavy watch the storm
We got divided, we bolstered supplies
We're hard masters, we bolstered supplies
What our teeth is for, and heavy watch the storm

We've got friends. We got really good friends, we're gonna get you for it!

We've got friends. We got really good friends, gonna
stretch your skin out,
Gonna stretch your skin out!
We've got friends. We got really good friends, we're
gonna get you for it!
We've got friends. We got really good friends, gonna
stretch your skin out,
Stretch your skin out!

He was the first one on his knees.
The first one in the home
The first one to lay down... & walk...
And heavy were his wings
A jackle wears the steel.
Cows in the garden, passangers?
When that band took flight
Went swimming with the kids that night.

Hey, I miss you.

Widen-out.

Widddeen outtt
