Here we are, far from home
A little bit hungry and a little alone
But it's all right, yeah it's all right

'Cause in this room, there might be friends
Can't see how the story ends
But it's all right, yeah it's all right

We can start anew

We can't go back so we gotta go on
We'll stick together staying strong
There's a diamond castle in my mind
And someday soon, we're gonna find it
We're gonna find it, we're gonna find it
We're gonna find it

Somehow things are looking up
Feeling like we've change our luck
I can see life, in a new light

Can't stay long, passing through
Don't know where we're going to
But it's all right, cause we just might

Find a way that's true

We can't go back so we gotta go on
We'll stick together staying strong
There's a diamond castle in my mind
And someday soon, we're gonna find it
We're gonna find it

We're gonna find the perfect place for us to be
And hear our melody set free
Climb the highest mountain just to see
To see

We can't go back so we gotta go on
We'll stick together staying strong

There's a diamond castle in my mind
And someday soon, we're gonna find it
We're gonna find it, we're gonna find it
We're gonna find it, we're gonna find it
We're gonna find it, we're gonna find it
Someday soon
