There's a place you can go where your heart is free
There's a rhythm that's right for you soul
Take a breath, find your courage, and make the leap
Cause your feet always knows where to go

And you dance and you dance in an endless flow
In the grace of a perfect design
Stepping out of the dark and into the glow
The whole world will see
When you shine, you can shine, shine

There's a beauty already inside of you
There's a difference that only you'll make Every place that you spin brings you somewhere new Finding hope every step that you take

And you dance and you dance in an endless flow
In the grace of a perfect design
Stepping out of the dark and into the glow
And the whole world will see when you shine
You can shine, shine

Suddenly, sparkling bright
Decked in a magical light
You will (shine)
Sisters are there by your side
Love will be your guide

And we dance and we dance in an endless flow
In the grace of a perfect design
Stepping out of the dark and into the glow
The whole world will see when we shine
We will shine
Shine

(And we dance and dance in an endless flow)
Stepping out of the dark and into the glow
(Stepping out of the dark and into the glow
We will shine, shine
(We can shine, shine)

(And we dance and dance in an endless flow)

Stepping out of the dark and into the glow
(Stepping out of the dark and into the glow
We will shine, shine
(We can shine, shine)
