We're just friends
I'm not tryna steal your man
Losing what's important to me
'Cause of your insecurity
Stop trippin'
I'm not tryna steal your man
While you're too good together
Girl, you know I would never

We've been friends for a long time
Goin' on six years
And everytime I had some drama
You was there for the laughter or tears
But now we got you girl, ooh
And I'm not tryna be disrespectful
We're just friends it ain't nothing more

We're just friends (we're jsut friends)
I'm not tryna steal your man
Losing what's important to me
'Cause of your insecurity
Stop trippin' (stop trippin')
I'm not tryna steal your man
While you're too good together
Girl, you know I would never

He called me on the phone this morning
He had to do it when you weren't home
I hate that he has to keep things from you
But girl, it is your own fault
'Cause you got these insecure fears
But he and I have be friends for years
Stop making this something that it's not
Or you'll end up losing the love that you've got

We're just friends
I'm not tryna steal your man (im not tryna steal your man)
Losing what's important to me
'Cause of your insecurity
Stop trippin'

I'm not tryna steal your man
While you're too good together (yall to good together)
Girl, you know I would never

We're just friends
I'm not tryna steal your man
Losing what's important to me
'Cause of your insecurity (why you tripping on me)
Stop trippin'
I'm not tryna steal your man
While you're too good together
Girl, you know I would never

I'm not tryna play a part (im not tryin to study)
I ain't the one to sell you
Just a friend not affectionate
Girl or wifey, I know that you might be
I know that you can't see wedding bells but it's up to you
Don't understand why you gettin' crazy
He's your man and your his lady
I don't wanna say this again
Understand that he's always gonna be friends with me
So lose that insecurity (yeaah)
You don't have to worry about a thing

We're just friends
I'm not tryna steal your man (he's like my best friend)
Losing what's important to me
'Cause of your insecurity
Stop trippin' (no questions)
I'm not tryna steal your man
While you're too good together
Girl, you know I would never

Do you believe I would never?
