[Verse 1]

Ooohh, ooohh.

I've never been afraid of another heartbreak,
Survived the last time, what this year is gonna take.

A lot of tears, a lot of pain.

A lot of time in the dark, a lot of walks in the park.

Please hear me.

I know exactly how it feels to have a breakdown,

This pain I feel,

There's nothing left to say now.

So many years, too many tears.

My heart is breaking apart,

I wonder how did it start.

You hear me.

[Chorus]

I can feel it when I look in your eyes,

It's like my heart is beating for you and I'm dying
inside.

For all them times that I tried,

For all those times that you lied.

It ain't worth it, no more hurtin'.

That's not what love is. [4x]

[Verse 2]

I know the feeling when you make the same mistakes.

You try to hide it, you do whatever it takes.

You always smile in front of crowds,

But you are crying inside.

You got the rain in your eyes,

Please tell me.

I know exactly how it feels to have a breakdown,

This pain I feel,

There's nothing left to say now.

So many years, too many tears.

My heart is breaking apart,

I wonder how did it start.

You hear me.

[Chorus]

I can feel it when I look in your eyes,
It's like my heart is beating for you and I'm dying
inside.
For all them times that I tried,
For all those times that you lied.
It ain't worth it, no more hurtin'.
That's not what love is. [4x]

we try to stick it out together.
but our pride wouldn't let us work it out.
what was it all about.
we never figured out
and now we lost it
all for nothing

Rap:
Who would've though I would end up with my heart
torn?
Now I'm tryna mend up.
Can't count on the prayers that I sent up.
Now you gone, realize that I miss ya.
But it's done, can't turn back time now.
But it's you on my mind when I ride 'round
With shades for the tears in my eyes now.
Only thing that can fix me is time now...'cause I'm hurtin'.

[Chorus]
I can feel it when I look in your eyes,
It's like my heart is beating for you and I'm dying
inside.
For all them times that I tried,
For all those times that you lied.
It ain't worth it, no more hurtin'.
That's not what love is. [4x]

No heartbreak, no more pain.
No crying, no time for heartache.
You are no longer here,
Our love has disappeared.
We shed too many tears,
That's not what love is.

No heartbreak, no more pain.
No crying, no time for heartache.
You are no longer here,
Our love has disappeared.
We shed too many tears,
That's not what love is.

That's not what love is,

I can't turn back time.
I just know, I taught you how to love.
And I love you still.
