and get my act together.
stop and watch the feathers fly around me take some time of
but thats not me
i think i have no choice but to let my memory and mind rest

just tripped over my own to feet my friends are always harrasing me the poperosey is stalking me

(chourus)

i think i better relax just take some time off
and get my act together
take some time off
but thats not me
i think i have no chioce but to let my memoery and mind rest
