Amazing, Outstanding
Who'd of thought it, hmm
It's kinda breath taking the way that your still loving me
I'm ready to give you all I have take the best of me
I am here before you
And your the reason
That I'm living, I am yours every part of me
And wherever you are is exactly where I want to be

You smile and my pain disapears
It seems as though my troubles fly away, yeah
What we have is just the most amazing, amazing thing
Your right there by my side
When I want to say it's ok
Yeah hmmm

Those three words that you say
I love you
You'll never know how much it means when you say that to me
Three words just turn all of my dreams into reality
Right here in your arms
Where I belong
I never want to live a day without you by my side
Look in your eyes and find That on you I can rely

You smile and my pain disapears

And it seems as though my troubles fly away, yeah
What we have is us the most amazing, amazing thing
Your right there by my side
When I want to say it's ok
Yeah hmmm

You take my breath away
See things in me
I can't see in myself
When everything is crazy
And my worlds gettin' hazey

I wouldn't turn to no one else
Yeah

You smile and my pain disappears
It seems as though my troubles fly away, away, away (What we have) Is just the most amazing, amazing thing
Your right there by my side
When I want to say it's ok
Yeah hey

You, you smile and my pain
Disappears
It seems as though my troubles fly away, oh
Your right there by my side when I want to say it's ok, ok, ok

ok, ok, ok
