see it started off and we were happy hanging out, just you and me i was your girl, you were man How'd we end up like this, dont understand somethings change and its me and you know im truely sorry cried out for help, you didnt listen wasn't my intention, to it i was driven stole his heart and now i can see it in his eyes im killing him inside

i was driving recklessly
now our relationship is weak and its all because of me

I feel like a criminal on the run i want you to catch me now before this comes crahsing down i feel like a criminal
Bail me out
Back to just me and you can you forgive the truth ?
Criminal criminal

i look around what am i doing all the wrong things i be pursing i just broke down looked in your eyes i saw your face made me realize All the thing ive been dealing with pushed me out rite to the edge im bout to fall jump into nothin but it stopped me when i see u come running

before this comes crashing down

and i dont know were i stand do i still fit in your plans cause i fled the scene for way too long and i dont know if you see forever you and me for that its worth im still holding on driving recklessly
