You know what,
You ever been in one of them situations when you meet a girl and she's peng,
But she's got a wasteman of a boyfriend?
And you wanna take her?

Wish for you on a falling star, wishing for star and I'm wondering where you are
Wish for you on on a falling star, wishing for a star and
I'm wondering where you are...

Never been a creeper,
We can make love in the night
I can be your overnight sleeper,
You got a man; I'm not giving a damn,
It's not a love ting there's no ring on your hand,
And I've got time for you, but your man ain't showing you no time (no time)
Tell him you ain't got time,
Cos you found a new bred that can treat you good,
Never mistreat you,
Never think I could,
You stressed out but you don't need the grief,
Your friends hating, tell her what's the beef,
All the man wants to do is show a little bit of love to you,
Can't say I love you, but I got love for you,
Love should do, yeah the upmost, a woman like you needs love but up close,
And it ain't about wasting time,
But I guarantee that you won't change your mind.

Wish for you on a falling star, wishing for star and I'm wondering where you are
Wish for you on on a falling star, wishing for a star and
I'm wondering where you are...

Haters try chat nonsense but get pie... eh pie
And they say that I'm just gonna fly by,
I mean not stick around,

But you don't pay attention to that bitter sound,
Your man might now just think cutting it,
He's got you stressed I'm loving it,
Your bredrins ain't making it no better,
Cos they don't get wet like bad weather,
Look, I'm not even gonna take up,
Just to get pieced and break up,
That's not me (that's not me)
Like going on a mic on a hype and chatting all off key,
And I know that you ain't gonna trust so quickly,
But that's just life,
So I'm never gonna mess it up,
Can't let this opportunity fly by.

Wish for you on a falling star, wishing for star and I'm wondering where you are
Wish for you on on a falling star, wishing for a star and
I'm wondering where you are...

Look I ain't gonna waste no time,
Better no please,
Not go into a shop with no P's, Don't watch what them badman just say, they might take your heart,
But I'm no thief,
Your man right now ain't being full time,
I dunno why you give that full time,
Cos most of the time he's kicking up,
So you no that he's not gonna stick about,
You like to be smiling a lot,
But it seems right now that your losing the plot,
Cos he ain't really treating you right,
You're ringing up Casso Blax in the night,
But take time,
No need to rush,
Wanna show love, cos you need it, love,
And I ain't gonna let you down, cos I can't really let you know.

Wish for you on a falling star, wishing for star and I'm wondering where you are
Wish for you on on a falling star, wishing for a star and
I'm wondering where you are...
