just let me fall into your movements, movements of subtle surrender.
i need to recycle all the feelings i had in the past, paint me a picture a unique image of your inner feelings Kylie say the words with silent ears and silent hands ive seen a boat and it seem to be sinking ive seen a boat and its stuck on dry land saw you last night said, i saw you last night you were walking with the painters tried to remember what it means to freeze at all ive seen a boat and it seemed to be sinking ive seen a boat and its stuck on dry land heres the key...(to the castle to free my hand?) wont you give me your heart, wont you give me your heart and i'll give you my hand i saw you last night
tried to remember what it means to freeze at all now its ours to make...(cant understand to transcribe) say the words dont you let it go, let it go, let it go. dont let it way again away again
away again
come on kylie
say the words
say the words
say the words right
ive seen a boat and it seemed to be sinking
ive seen a boat and its stuck on dry land just a key...(to the castle to free my hand?) wont you give me you heart, wont you give me your heart and i'll give you my hand come on kylie now you get what you deserve come on kylie now you get what you deserve.
