Why? Why? All time high.
He does this longer than a colourfull line.
Ask me diva what I've said.
You've been out all night, know you've been bad.
Don't tell me different, know it's a lie.
Come to me honey, see how I cry.

Why must you hurt me do what you do.
Listen dear girl can't you see I love you.
Make a little effort try to be true.
I'll be happy not so blue.

Why? Why? All time high.
He does this longer than a colourfull line.
Two people telling all thoes lies.
Still going out with other guys.
One of theese days I'll be gone.
Take my adwise, won't be long.

I left you once, won't be bad.
Sleep with you, bot I'll still be sad.
In spight of you cheating I still love you so.
I'll be unhappy if I let you go.

Why? Why? All time high.
He does this longer than a colourfull line.
