Excuse me mister got a little story that I'd like to share Hey little sister you're so lonely oh if only you could hear me yeah
I found a love that's never gonna let you down (go)
Been a long, been a long, long time since someone's shown love for me
It's all about love and I want you to know
Sweet words of love can you hear them baby
Nothing compares this love will never let you go away
So tell me brother lost your lover to another
And you can't seem to bear the thought
Oh how you've fought for a reason to live Days of joy are few and far between
Been a long, been a long, long time since someone's
shown love for me
Been a long time, someone show love for me
CHORUS
Sweet words of love (3x)
Nothing compares this love will never let you go
