You say I'm lame for calling on a man that I have never seen

You say I'm crazy for listening for a voice that I have never heard

You say that I am so naive to think that He could love me but I have joy and I have peace that will never ever leave me

Is it because you've never seen Is it because you've never heard that you're comfortable in darkness in a lost and dying world He'll be standing all around you with His arms held open wide and you're straining just to see Him through blinded eyes

Open your eyes the place where you are standing now is holy ground

God shined His light straight into you heart now look what you've found

Is that right what you call righteousness

All dressed up in Sunday best

They're draped across the stage

Only Jesus never walked away

Open your heart, He'll open your eyes show you the hope you have inside call on the Name of Christ and He will save you and give you wings to fly
