Falling broken glass, my heart begins to bleed,
The difference between what I want and what I really need, (Really need) Emerging from this broken glass, my heart begins to heal,
The difference between how I act, and how I really feel.

I hope you catch fire, an ash for every lie,
Your a failure by design, and I was right this time.

This is your last, just say it, any last words? (Say it)

Cause I've been thinking this all through,
I've been sneaking looks straight through you,
I'm cutting you down page by page, (Page by page)
If only you knew, how many arrows you've shot through my heart,
How many long car drives, take us, right back to the start, the start.

I hope you catch fire, an ash for every lie,
Your a failure by design, and I was right this time,
I hope you catch fire, an ash for every lie,
Your a failure by design, and I was right this time. (This time)
