Your secret is death on my lips, no one will know of this.
We're in this, side by side to control, the bottle is calling you - and,
Recite to you, this sad song will admit, my eyes will stare into yours.
The times I held you, was love at it's best, don't ever
forget it,
Cause it's all that you'll get.

Trust me, I know where I stand.
Trust me, We go hand in hand.

This is goodnight, forget me tonight.
This is goodbye, forget me tonight.

When we forget this whole night, it'll be gone forever.
Breath in, exhale, it's more than you get, a life worth drowning in and.
This is a song for my sick drama queen, your crown is fading and starting to bleed.
It's a delicate subject if you know what I mean
These words will breakout whenever you scream.

Trust me, I know where I stand.
Trust me, We go hand in hand.

This is goodnight, forget me tonight.
This is goodbye, forget me tonight.
