You know what I'm thinking?
How pretty you'd look,
With my hands around your throat,
Are you beginning to get this?
I'm hoping you notice,
I shook when I wrote this,
And never regretted a word.

I'll say goodbye to you. (for good)
I'll wait all night for you. (for you)
I'll say goodbye to you.
To tell the truth, I still love you.

You know what I'm thinking?
How pretty you'd look,
With my hands around your throat,
Are you beginning to get this?
I'm hoping you choke,
On promises broken,
Or anyone that misses you.

I'll say goodbye to you. (for good)
I'll wait all night for you. (for you)
I'll say goodbye to you.
To tell the truth, I still love you.

All I have is nightmares,
About you and me,
Getting lost in your bedsheets,
Then falling asleep,
And hoping that we never -
Wake up.
