Absent
In his reveling moment
YOU SCREAM HIS NAME
Hoping you would be answered
Repent your sins
In these last moments of life
If there's a voice to be heard
Where is the voice

Hope does not exist for you
Hope does not exist for you
But will your faith stay true
But will your faith stay true

All you life investing false hope into a book you've misread

In the end will you stay true
Maintaining faith to the one who betrayed you

Don't you know your only savior is you
