Verse1x:

Oh, every one just lost the game.
I've got To walk on clouds because there is no ground,
Here where I am, I never imagined being around,
Multitudes... Solitude, Finding Peace,
All that bull shit. Isn't here.
Put your hands up, the bus has stopped,
And I've got a gun, or is it fake?
I'll never ever tell, you'll never know until you get to the motel.
And it's already over, yeah it's already over.

Chorus:

Grab a seat, and tell me what your thinking,
The world is not the same as it was before,
Just a moment ago, I captured it with my device,
And now it's leaving us behind, for a time
I can not explain or know, Branches are roots,
And Dudes play halo like call of duty.
But this wont move me, I'll stay calm, as long
As you hold on to my arms and tell me stories,
The kind that make babies sleep walk.

Verse2x:

Disastrous zones ahead, I can't complain,
I'm not driving, But kudos to the dead,
They got away from this nightmare,
And I'm still wondering why I'm here...
Yesterday I was fine,
Didn't think I'd be greeted by a sideways sign,
And pulled away from life as we know it,
And my yard... I still had to mow it...
And for some unforeseen reason, I have
A giant sword, And I have no idea
Where it came from, where it came from,
But it looks pretty fucking cool...
And I have no idea where it came from,
Where it came from?

Chorus

Grab a seat, and tell me what your thinking,
The world is not the same as it was before,

Just a moment ago, I captured it with my device,
And now it's leaving us behind, for a time
I can not explain or know, Branches are roots,
And Dudes play halo like call of duty.
But this wont move me, I'll stay calm, as long
As you hold on to my arms and tell me stories,
The kind that make babies sleep walk.

Verse3x:

I'm getting lead footed, The gas is almost gone,
But we are almost about to reach this city,
But you know what would be really shitty?
Is if we got there and no one was even there.
But hopefully it will help us find a way out.
And we wont be stuck with this crap any longer,
And I will finally be able to sleep.
