A premature disclosure
And it's filling up this meeting that we had
These broken phrases catch me with my guard down
With my guard down

I left myself wide open
I left myself for you
I left myself

I took a dive for your deep end
Thinking everything's just fine
I broke my heart on your shallow side, and i?
Your shallow side

I left myself for you

Why do I feel the same?
Why do I feel?
Why do I feel this way?
This way?
