All that I've come to feeling
Is a plastic wig ??? All that is grown
Is a plastic doll
Days so excited
All is just the things
All, all

Come down and see us win
Keepers caught in clear ??? (could this line be non-English?)
All those good times
Is it much too fast
Deep inside the train
So imagination takes you there

And it's something strange
And it's something strange
And it's something strange
And it's something strange

And it's something strange
And it's something strange
And it's something strange
And it's something strange
Something strange
