You stole my heart
For your heart hideaway
You alone hold the secret key
Oh, why can't I find
Your heart hideaway
I love you, I want you with me
I miss your arms, your lips
Your embrace, your carress
Don't keep my heart in vain
If you don't love me, give it back
To quiet my lonely pain
You stole my heart
For your heart hideaway
You alone hold the secret key
Please unlock your heart hideaway
I love you, I want you with me
