i wanna do a million things and some of them tonight i wanna be a billion places i guess i'm looking for a light i'm gonna lose my head
i'm going down
i'm gonna lose the man
i am nothing remains
i speak against the wall
nothing comes back at all
no feedback anywhere
and nobody's there
if i waited a bit too long
it's hard for me to change i grab everything i can that's all
and when it matters
then i'm blind
nothing is alright i only see what i wanna see it breaks me up against tonight
