poor boy tripping on good intentions girls got rhythm and expectations in a world gone mad under reconstruction i'm all washed up, i guess i've had enough of cheap comments and fake attractions back at square one you were zero to none with your head in the clouds spinning around you are miles ahead

never wake up
you hit this town

up on cloud nine waiting to get paid take the money and get back where you came from get where you belong it's cheap comments and fake attractions back to california back where you belong. you're back at square one, you are zero to none
