To melodize your thoughts
To compromise your peace of mind
Open up your heart
You couldn't have the power to be unkind
You're searching for some truth
The hurting is unbearable
There's nothing you can do
Just wade through the waters of the terrible
When I think about it
Nothing comes to mind
When I try to solve it
Nothing comes to mind
Every day I sit and wait
Is this love or only hate
When I think about it
Nothing comes to mind
You're holding back the tears
You thought you were invincible
There's nothing you can fear
Just wade through the waters of the terrible
When I think about it
Nothing comes to mind
When I try to solve it
Nothing comes to mind
Every day I sit and wait
Is this love or only hate
When I think about it
Nothing comes to mind
Faith in me is getting hard to keep
Faith in you is getting hard to find
Can't you see that I am losing sleep
While you run through the riches
That you always find
When I think about it
Nothing comes to mind
Every day I sit and wait
Is this love or only hate
When I think about it
Nothing comes to mind
