In the night
There is something
That holds you told you wrong
You can see when the day breaks
That the lonely only cry
And I'll tell you once again
To accept my words once more
It's been going on too long to ignore
Tell me what you see
Only what you want to
Tell me what you see
What conclusion did you come to
When you roll up your sleeve
What do you see
In the night
There is someone
Who is flying and crying alone
And he sighs
With contentment
As the potion motions to lie
And I'll show you once again
Of the dangers of once more
You're going to be lost with what's in store
Tell me what you see
Only what you want to
Tell me what you see
What conclusion did you come to
When you roll up your sleeve
What do you see
How do you sleep
Where do you keep your heart
What do you see
How do you treat their hearts
And when it falls
Where will you keep your heart
Tell me what you see
Only what you want to
Tell me what you see
What conclusion did you come to
When you roll up your sleeve
What do you see
