breaks your body and destroys your soul consumes your life, creates false goals that you don't want but you feel you need bullshit achievements fueled by greed punch the clock
work for shit
punch the wall swear you're gonna quit mind numbing routine schedule keeps us content with living hand to mouth and barely making rent when people say they love their job they're usually lying fighting to survive but so quickly they're dying we're well trained workers, well oiled machines we censor our thoughts and kill our dreams sacrifice our lives for capitalist schemes take back your life from the bloodsucking fiends.
