Some time long ago
There lived a gypsy I loved so
She danced around my head
Above my bed
Like no other I had known
I remember taking with her smile
The magic sweetness of a child
A wondrous warmth of love in her gentle giving
Oh, am I dreaming now?

I can feel her dancing
Dancing in the memory of when I saw her crying
Crying cos our hearts weren't lying and
We are only dreaming now

The days of sunshine in the air
The nights not lonely we were gave
To share an onliness that to be in love could find
To get her fair
So happy dancing on our way
Sometimes she'd stop and she would say
"Oh how I love you so, is this so Tell me, am I dreaming now?"

I can feel her dancing
Dancing in the memory of when I saw her crying
Crying cos our hearts weren't lying and
We are only dreaming now
